

Legal Studies

33 videos

		Year	Rating	Duration
	A Day In Court: Young People and the Criminal Justice Process This programme examines what constitutes a crime, what happens to a person when they commit a crime and what rights they and the police have.	2002	E	00:28:14
	Alternative Dispute Resolution With the court system in Australia often requiring people to endure protracted and expensive procedures, alternative means of resolving disputes are increasingly important - not just to ensure that di...	2008	E	00:28:34
	An Introduction to Criminal and Civil Law The programme focuses on the differences between criminal and civil law. It begins with a brief description of legal and non-legal rules. It examines what constitutes a criminal act, the difference be...	2007	E	00:26:53
	Contract Law This programme investigates the nature of formal and informal contracts. Experts provide clear definitions and dramatised scenarios will help the viewer to understand the complexities of various contr...	2006	E	00:27:20
	Court Procedures in Criminal and Civil Law This programme discusses the differences between criminal and civil procedures. It focuses on the role the Magistrates Court plays in dealing with summary and indictable offences and the trial procedu...	2007	E	00:26:11
	Crimes Against the Environment Crimes against the environment take many forms, but it is a complex area of criminology. This programme, presented by Dr Steven Taylor, explores green crime and includes interviews with experts Dr Gar...	2012	E	00:21:50
	Democracy and the Role of the Individual What role does the individual play in a democracy? Some believe it is our citizenry duty to know about the law and participate in the legal and political systems. This programme outlines the various w...	2006	E	00:26:01
	Democracy in Australia: An Introduction Learning all about Australian democracy doesn't have to be dry and boring. It can be dynamic and fun! Using attention-grabbing images and colourful animations, our youthful presenter takes students on...	2010	E	00:12:58
	Determining Criminal Sentences in Australia Series: Australian Criminal Law This programme explores the types of sentencing imposed on criminal offenders in Australia and the factors taken into account when determining sentences. Current practices include fines, community ord...	2015	E	00:11:48
	Evaluating the Legal System How effective is our legal system? This video presents case studies from various courts in Australia illustrating some of the limitations on the Australian legal system.	2003	E	00:30:26

	First Time Voters The 2007 Federal election was a watershed moment in Australian politics; a fresh-faced but inexperienced leader faced a battle-hardened veteran whose ideas, many said, felt stale. With the youth vote...	2008	E	00:16:58
	Government and Law Making This programme examines our three levels of government, how laws are created and the structure and role of the Australian parliamentary system. It discusses the role of the Commonwealth Constitution i...	2008	E	00:22:07
	How Our Laws are Made Series: Governing Australia Series Using everyday examples that students can easily relate to. This program explains in simple terms how Australia's laws are made by our three levels of government: Municipal, State or Territory and Com...	2004	E	00:21:00
	Human Rights For many of us, the right to express our ideas and live how we choose is something we take for granted. But these rights and many others have come as the result of years of hard work and deliberation....	2010	E	00:22:09
	International Law and Global Governance International law is described as 'the general principles of law as recognised by civilised nations'. This informative programme adds much needed depth to this broad definition by explaining: state so...	2011	E	00:22:13
	Is Australia a Just Society? Series: Classroom Video Issues Australia is a democratic society. Treating each other equally and giving each other a 'fair go' are an important part of Australian culture and identity. However, in practice, are Australians really...	2009	E	00:16:26
	Justice and Social Responsibility The term social justice and responsibility is said to be a "Utopian" concept and impossible to achieve. Does this mean that the individuals in society should not try to achieve it? If Australia sought...	2008	E	00:31:37
	Mandatory Sentencing: The Issues Mandatory sentencing is one of the biggest issues that Australians have faced in recent times. It brings up a range of critical issues related to human rights, justice, racism, appropriate punishment...	2000	E	00:18:52
	Our Three Levels of Government Series: Governing Australia Series Features a detailed explanation of the roles and responsibilities of the municipal, state and federal levels of government in Australia.	2004	E	00:21:25
	Purposes of Criminal Sanctions in Australia Series: Australian Criminal Law This programme details the key aims of imposing criminal sentences upon offenders in Australia. The purpose and effectiveness of sentencing and sanctions are explored. Viewers are introduced to states...	2015	E	00:13:23
	Rights and Responsibilities for Young People We live in a society governed by a set of laws. Laws keep us safe, to help us resolve our problems, and to stop people causing harm to others. Every citizen has certain rights and responsibilities as...	2010	E	00:21:24
	Rules and Laws: Why Do We Have Them? How Are They Made? This programme begins by comparing rules in games to rules in society. It then uses simple, play-acted situations involving a group of roller bladers to illustrate why we have rules, and what happens...	1994	E	00:13:28

	Sentencing: The Attainment of Justice Explores the work of Australia's attorney-general, magistrates and judges.	1994	E	00:30:14
	Smoking, Justice and the Law In October 2001 cancer victim Rolah McCabe sued the British American Tobacco corporation for damages. This programme examines important issues raised by the ensuing court case.	2003	E	00:19:47
	Standing for the Senate This programme explores what's involved in running for the Senate, using the campaign of Charmaine Clarke as a case study.	1999	E	00:17:28
	The Adversary System This programme investigates the adversary system of trial as used in Australia, United States and the United Kingdom. It examines the key features of the Adversary system, the role of the parties, the...	2007	E	00:20:46
	The Australian Jury System In the criminal and civil justice system, a jury serves to reflect the values of society. In this information-packed programme we define what a jury is, explain eligibility for jury service and detail...	2011	E	00:20:57
	The Criminal Investigation Process This exceptional programme examines the criminal investigation process in Australia via the dramatised story of an armed robbery at a typical suburban convenience store. We provide an introduction to...	2011	M	00:17:46
	The Law Reform Process In every modern society the laws that govern its citizens are complex and vital. From traffic law and tax law, through to criminal and family law, there are laws that relate to every part of our lives...	2010	E	00:22:53
	The Objectives of Criminal Punishment Considers the question "What is the objective of criminal sanctions imposed on individuals found guilty of breaking the community's laws?"	1995	E	00:26:25
	Tort Law Sometimes our everyday actions and choices have significant impact on the experience of other people, even affecting their level of comfort and safety. When an individual breaches the civil rights of...	2006	E	00:27:50
	Types of Criminal Sanctions How do we punish criminals? What is a "just outcome" for both the individual and the community?	1994	E	00:29:43
	Young People and the Law This programme looks at possible scenarios where young people (aged 10-20) may encounter the law.	2003	E	00:26:45