

Geography

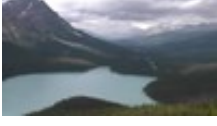

166 videos

	Year	Rating	Duration
 1850 - Present Day Series: Australian Relationships with Nature In recent history, Australia's relationship with nature has evolved with the arrival of settlers and increased population. We are more aware of the importance of preserving our natural environment. In...	2010	E	00:19:31
 A Child's Day: East Timor This program portrays a day in the life of Cecilia, an 11 year-old East Timorese girl. Cecilia lives with her uncle and aunties so she can attend school as her parents live three hours away. Her villag...	2003	E	00:14:23
 A Smarter Country There are infinite opportunities and benefits created by renewable energy, ecologically sustainable farming, and green buildings and lifestyles. "A Smarter Country" follows Sydney's Lord Mayor Clover M...	2014	E	00:54:40
 Air Pollution Series: Pollution of Air and Water Objective: To learn about air pollution and its sources. Learning outcomes - students will be able to: 1. Define air pollution. 2. Discuss the human pollutants of air and their sources.	2014	E	00:05:04
 Air, Water Vapour and Weather This video explores the three components of air, water vapour and weather, looking particularly at: 1. The sun's energy - the heating of the ground. 2. The air-sea breezes, the fact air has mass and exe...	1997	E	00:21:14
 Amazon Rainforest: The Development Dilemma The Amazon headwaters in eastern Ecuador are some of the world's most abundant in biodiversity. This programme traces the impact of oil exploration and development on a fragile ecosystem. Local Huaora...	1994		00:23:53
 Applying Environmental Science: A Land Rehabilitation Case Study In this program we follow a project where an entire tract of bushland is moved from one location to another. We explore: - Project planning, execution, completion and assessment. - Scientific trials a...	2002	E	00:21:18
 Australia's Diverse Environments: Natural and Human Join us on a whirlwind tour of Australia's diverse natural and man-made environments. We kick off with the Great Dividing Range's impact on rainfall and human habitation, and then dive into the Great...	2010		00:21:55
 Australia's Role in the Asia-Pacific Region Geographically, Australia is part of the region known as the Asia-Pacific Region. A region is a human concept that can be mapped and analysed. (Definition: Regions are identified as having something i...	2010	E	00:17:56
 Australia's Threatened Plants and Animals Produced in conjunction with the Australian Nature Conservation Agency, this program is an introduction to some of the nation's rare and threatened species. By exploring some of Australia's fragile ec...	1996	E	00:22:58

	Australia: An Ecological Profile This beautiful video highlights the flora and fauna of a unique landscape briefly explaining the concept of Gondwana in relation to Australia's endemic species.	2000	E	00:22:37
	Australian States and Territories This is a journey around Australia. We examine each state and territory in turn. We also consider the colonial history of Australia, and how this led to the formation of the states, and the advent of...	1998	E	00:27:52
	Biodiversity Under Threat: The Sundarbans Bangladesh's Sundarban Mangroves is one of the world's most bio-diverse areas and home to the endangered Bengal Tiger. This video resource bank looks at why the Sundarbans is so important: as a bio-di...	2011	E	00:40:29
	Built Environment Produced with the co-operation of the Geography Teacher's Association of NSW, this program provides an introductory overview on the nature of the built environment.- What is the built environment? - P...	1993	E	00:25:34
	Caring for a Catchment: The Hawkesbury-Nepean Produced in association with Hawkesbury-Nepean Catchment Trust and Environmental Protection Authority, NSW. This video examines the impact of agriculture, urban planning, urban development, and touris...	1996	E	00:21:41
	Challenges of Urbanisation: Inequalities in Bangalore Taking Bangalore as a case study this resource looks at the causes and impacts of urban poverty. The programme then visits various poverty alleviation projects covering, water, sanitation and housing.	2009	E	00:27:44
	Change in Rural Australia: People Adjusting Differently A study of a proud town with a strong heritage learning to cope with national and global changes. With the decline of both coal and other manufacturing in more recent years, Lithgow has suffered a dec...	1998	E	00:21:21
	Changing Communities In this program, we examine what changes have occurred in the town of Korumburra, and the reasons for these changes.	2006	E	00:26:44
	Climate Change Series: Classroom Video Issues Scientific evidence clearly shows that global temperatures are rising and weather patterns are changing. But what's causing it? Undoubtedly there has been a massive worldwide shift into accepting the...	2008	E	00:17:38
	Climate Change Use this fantastic video resource to encourage students to judge whether or not climate change will impact upon people differently around the world. The impacts of climate change can be quite hard to...	2014	E	00:36:47
	Climate Change: Our Responsibility Series: Classroom Video Issues This programme establishes the vital importance of the greenhouse effect for life on Earth and then presents a balanced argument to assess whether or not anthropogenic climate change (often called glo...	2008	E	00:25:40
	Coastal Dunes: Ecology and Rehabilitation Coastal dunes are good examples of fragile ecosystems. This program explores dune ecology, the impact of human-induced change and the management of these ecosystems through coastal dune rehabilitatio...	1996	E	00:28:59

	Coastal Landforms and Management This program looks at the 'sand budget' and erosion of rock and explores the balance between natural and human forces at work on a beach. Topics featured include: sources of sand, effect of waves on a...	1987	E	00:23:16
	Coastal Processes and Landforms This program shows the processes shaping our coastlines with case studies from the UK and Australia. How does the process of erosion, transportation and deposition transform coastal landscapes? How do...	1994	E	00:23:14
	Coastal Processes and Landforms Series: Dynamic Lands Why do novice surfers prefer constructive waves? What happens when you take away a village's natural sea defences? Filmed along the Dorset coastline, this resource provides up-to-date explanations and...	2012	E	00:23:09
	Community Action and the Environment In 1996 residents living in Werribee, just outside Melbourne, learned that a toxic waste dump was being proposed for a nearby quarry site owned by CSR, an international manufacturer of building produc...	2003	E	00:24:05
	Crime, Safety and Liveability Series: Place and Liveability What can be done to reduce crime, increase safety and improve liveability in different communities? This clip considers factors influencing crime rates and perceived safety, and compares relevant fact...	2014	E	00:11:59
	Debating Energy Futures: Coal, Gas and Nuclear With case studies from the US, the UK, China and India, this programme asks how important coal, gas and nuclear will be in the future global energy mix. Find out what is being done to clean up coal, t...	2014	E	00:34:07
	Deforestation This video covers the topic of deforestation. Aspects of deforestation that are discussed include tsunamis, landslides, global warming and the extinction of animal species.	2014	E	00:05:46
	Deserts: Global Environments Every continent has deserts – they occupy more area of the surface of our planet than any other type of landscape. They occur in all climatic zones including the hottest and coldest locations on Earth...	2012	E	00:18:04
	Drought in Australia Series: Natural Hazards Australia is the driest inhabited continent on the planet. Drought in many parts of this nation is a fact of life. At just about any point in time, somewhere in Australia will be experiencing drought...	2012	E	00:19:54
	Earth's Survival: Decoding the Climate Science Made in consultation with the IPCC and world leading climate scientists, this groundbreaking documentary explains the big headlines in climate change, and how we may be in the middle of the most cruci...	2014	E	00:51:57
	Earthquake Tsunami: Wave of Destruction This programme explores natural forces inside our planet, how and why earthquakes occur, the 2004 tsunami and the international response that followed. Senior seismologist Gary Gibson takes us through...	2005	E	00:24:23
	Eco Pioneers: A Case Study of Bega The town of Bega, on the south coast of NSW are working to transform their town into a sustainable community. Through the work of "Clean Energy for Eternity", the program follows Dr Matthew Nott as he...	2013	E	00:17:50

	Ecotourism: What Is It? This beautifully filmed program examines what constitutes ecotourism and what doesn't. We look at different types of ecotours, including: - Whale watching and sea kayaking in Canada. - Coral islands i...	1998	E	00:24:02
	Emerging Superpower: Booming Bangalore Bangalore has become the "Silicon Valley" of India. This programme asks what have been the causes of this success, including the role of education, globalisation and government deregulation. It goes o...	2009	E	00:36:51
	Energy Security: India's Sustainable Solutions India faces a major energy crisis because of its rapid population growth and industrialisation, but traditional energy sources won't be enough to meet all future needs. This geography video and resour...	2009	E	00:20:04
	Environmental Impacts of Consumer Products Series: Geographies of Interconnections We often don't realise it, but the decisions we make as consumers – from what products we buy to how we end up disposing of them – often affect other people in other places. In this programme we inves...	2016	E	00:10:05
	Estuaries Series: Life in the Sea Estuaries... many of us live on or near an estuary and maybe use it for boating or fishing or swimming, or even just for the view. Estuaries are often at the heart of coastal cities. But what's their st...	2017	E	00:17:07
	Ethical Tourism This excellent resource is suitable for teaching both Geography and Travel and Tourism. It discusses ethical tourism practices and their benefits and costs for host communities, business and traveller...	2012	E	00:31:09
	Extreme Weather: Coastal Flooding Through the use of two case studies, the Dawlish Railway Collapse and the East Coast Tidal Surge, this resource looks at the impacts of the 2013/2014 winter storms. The extreme weather conditions that...	2015	E	00:31:48
	Factors Affecting Global Tourism Many forces impact on global tourism – some have immediate impact, others longer term; some have a major effect on destination competitiveness and stability, others are not so significant. The global...	2012	E	00:20:48
	Fish Sustainability The growth of Canada coincided with a growth and development of the fishing industry. Technology and capital allowed companies to expand and develop new methods of fishing while sonar, radar, bigger s...	1997	E	00:23:55
	Flooding in Bangladesh: Causes, Impacts and Management Tailor-made to fit UK specifications, this resource is filmed in Bangladesh and emphasises contemporary thinking about hazard events. The personal accounts of those living on Bangladesh's char lands h...	2010	E	00:37:37
	Flooding in the UK: Tewkesbury A freak weather event or a disaster waiting to happen? Explore the physical and human causes of the Tewkesbury 2007 flood with this resource that looks in detail at runoff, infiltration rates and the...	2013	E	00:34:54
	Forest Conservation Objective: To study about forest conservation. Learning outcomes - students will be able to: 1. Understand the important role that forests play in the natural environment; 2. Understand that humans mus...	2014	E	00:03:27

	Fragile Ecosystems: Palau, Micronesia The Pacific Islands of Palau contain some of the world's most pristine coral reef ecosystems. In this program, the interaction between coral reefs, rainforests, intertidal wetlands and mangroves is ex...	1995	E	00:25:53
	Freedom Stories Series: Freedom Stories "Freedom Stories" is an exploration of the struggles and achievements of former 'boat people'. Now Australian citizens, they arrived seeking asylum during the second term of the Howard Government. It i...	2015	PG	01:39:40
	Future Harvest: Case Studies in Sustainable Agriculture In this video produced by VEA and the Museum of Victoria we look at eight case studies. The program gives valuable insights into the changes taking place in Australian agriculture to solve serious env...	1998	E	00:41:08
	Geographers in the Field This programme examines how to undertake a fieldwork study. It begins with looking at why fieldwork is important for geography and how to choose and undertake research on a site. It teaches students h...	2009	E	00:33:36
	Geohazards: Monitoring and Prediction Learn how volcanologists in Montserrat and Iceland are predicting the location, frequency and severity of future volcanic and seismic events. Get access to the very latest equipment used for deformati...	2013	E	00:39:04
	Glaciation in the UK How has ice shaped the UK landscape? What are the processes operating at differing scales and how have they been influenced by geology, climate and human activity? With examples drawn from around the...	2015	E	00:25:50
	Glaciation: Processes and Landforms How are glaciers formed? Where are they found? How and why do they move? How do they shape the land, both now and in the past? Using examples filmed in the UK, Iceland and the Alps, and with the help...	2014	E	00:41:04
	Glaciers and Glaciation: A Frozen Key to Our Past and Future This program examines the development and characteristics of glaciers in different stages including: their movement, their effect on mountain features and landforms and their advancement and retreat....	2000	E	00:25:07
	Global Atmospheric Circulation Series: Weather Hazards Earth's diverse climate and weather patterns are predominantly governed by global atmospheric circulation and ocean currents. This programme looks at different atmospheric phenomena, including the glo...	2017	E	00:11:27
	Global Connections through Trade Series: Geographies of Interconnections We use foreign-made products every day. Some have components that originate in many different countries. This programme explores how international trading connects us with other places. It looks at th...	2016	E	00:12:08
	Global Connections: How We Are Connected to the Rest of the World Everyday we can see things in our lives that show us that we are connected with people all over the world. But exactly how is Australia connected to the other countries in the world, and what are our...	2002	E	00:21:43

	Global Energy Security	2014	E	00:34:04
	What makes some countries more energy secure than others and what are the strategies that can be pursued to improve security? With video case studies from the EU, Iceland, China, India, Canada and the...
	Global Food Equity	2012	E	00:19:58
	Global food shortages are having devastating affects in many corners of the globe. This detailed, wide-ranging programme breaks down the different areas of food – from the availability and distributio...
	Global Health and Human Development	2011	E	00:20:19
	This eye-opening program provides a global perspective on health and human development. We speak to experts from The Nossal Institute for Global Health, ActionAid, and Oxfam, and examine the important...
	Global Warming: You Can Make a Difference	2006	E	00:28:20
	Our appetite for the Earth's resources is leading to global warming of the atmosphere. This program argues that action should be taken at international and political levels and addresses the question...
	Growing Cities	2013	E	01:33:13
	From rooftop farmers to backyard beekeepers, Americans are growing food like never before. Growing Cities tells the inspiring stories of these intrepid urban farmers, innovators, and everyday city-dwe...
	Growing Up in Modern Japan	2000	E	00:24:24
	Eri lives in Nagoya, one of the largest cities in Japan. Raki lives in the small farming village of Obara. The daily lives of these children form the basis of this program, which explores modern Japan...
	Growth and Niche Markets in Tourism	2012	E	00:21:23
	A range of factors have led to tourism becoming one of the world's fastest growing industries. Tourism experiences have become more diverse in recent decades, in response to changing demands from the...
	Health in the Developing World	2001	E	00:34:51
	Across the world 1.3 billion people suffer from extreme poverty. They don't have enough to eat, they don't have proper shelter, they don't have safe drinking water and they don't have access to life s...
	Health Inequities in Australia	2011	E	00:17:18
	Despite the best intentions, Indigenous life span and health expectancies are still significantly lower than the national average. For those aged 65 years or above, access to health services can also...
	Hope City	2015	E	00:15:09
	Majak, a teenage boy from South Sudan is haunted by his dark past and torn between his new life and a burning desire to return to home to find his mother.
	Housing Series: Geography	2013	E	00:23:16
	A key human need is shelter. Providing appropriate and sustainable housing infrastructure, and access to it, is a major national focus and involves a range of businesses and other organisations, inclu...
	How Many of Us? Australia's Population Debate	2002	E	00:28:09
	This program examines the history of Australia's population growth and then presents two leading advocates for a larger and a smaller population, who discuss potential outcomes of current social poli...

	Iceland: Living with Volcanoes	2013	E	00:42:36
	Focussing primarily on the 2010 eruption, this resource first asks why people choose to live in volcanic regions? The opportunities for geo-thermal power, tourism and agriculture are considered. It th...
	Impact of Development: A New Mine in Papua New Guinea	1993	E	00:43:28
	This program looks at the changes brought about by the development of a billion-dollar gold mine to the indigenous people of Porgera, in one of the more remote areas of Papua New Guinea. As the govern...
	Impacts of Tourism: Economic, Environment, Social and Cultural	2001	E	00:23:09
	Tourism is often something of a mixed fortune. Whilst the financial benefits can be huge, the seasonal influx of visitors can have a massive impact on an area, its people, culture and landscape. This...
	Improving Liveability: Case Studies in Urban Design Series: Place and Liveability	2014	E	00:12:11
	This clip looks at two case studies that feature local infrastructure projects aimed at improving aspects of liveability for the community. The first is an international example – Copenhagen’s cycling...
	In Focus: East Timor - A Case Study in International Aid	2003	E	00:33:28
	This programme examines the work of International Aid organisations in East Timor. Important concepts such as local solutions for local problems and the involvement of communities in aid projects are...
	Industrial and Sustainable Farming	2012	E	00:21:19
	One of the biggest challenges facing the farming industry today is feeding the growing world population while also caring for the environment. At the centre of this debate are industrial and sustainab...
	Internal Migration in China	2014	E	00:13:03
	Since the 1970s, China has been experiencing the world’s largest internal migration. In this program, we look at what internal migration is and why China is experiencing a dramatic population shift f...
	Is Australia's Population Growth Sustainable?	2010	E	00:18:16
	Australia's population is growing faster than the world average. In the near future, where will an extra 10-15 million people live? Will we have enough water, food and energy resources to meet growing...
	Issues in Globalisation: Environmental Impacts and Sustainability	2011	E	00:24:47
	Can economic growth be environmentally sustainable? Residents of Dhaka's slums show how extreme industrial pollution is destroying their environment and health. Next we talk to Bangladesh's environmen...
	Japan: An Introduction (Years 4-7)	1987	E	00:22:38
	This programme explores society, economy, politics, technology, population, consumerism, exports and foreign policy in Japan.
	Landmines: Cambodia Case Study (Years 8-11)	1999	E	00:11:38
	Landmines claim a victim every 15 minutes. Every month, 100 Cambodians step on a landmine. Why are landmines still used today? Why are people forced to take the risk of walking through a mine field? T...
	Latitude and Longitude: Where Are We?	2002	E	00:17:08
	This film examines Earth as a sphere, it defines latitude and longitude and explores how this global referencing system is applied. Following the crew of a 30,000 tonne container ship as they navigate...

	Living in Vietnam: In the Country and in the City Today	2001	E	00:20:28
	Through the lives of Vietnamese children, we are given an insight into life in this troubled country. In Vietnam all children have to go to school, but some also work before or after school to bring i...
	Living with Fire: Bushfires and Land Management in Australia	2002	E	00:19:40
	The positive and negative effects of fire on Australian ecosystems are debated in this program.
	Location: Why Things Are Where They Are	2001	E	00:24:02
	While the old explorer geographers described and mapped where things were located, the contemporary geographer is asked to explain why they are located there. Location is a key concept used by geograp...
	London Series: Megacities	2017	E	00:13:59
	London is one of the world's most important megacities. It has long attracted people from all over the globe, as well as migrants from within the UK, and continues to do so today. This programme explo...
	Magic Harvest	2011	G	00:26:34
	Many suburbs are build on former farmland. In the suburbs of Adelaide, locals arm themselves with garden forks and kitchen knives to put that land to good use, pioneering a backyard revolution one squ...
	Managing a Coastal Ecosystem	2006	E	00:28:50
	Built around a case study of Towra Point Nature and Marine Reserve in Botany Bay, New South Wales, this programme highlights: location and change over time; an examination of the biophysical environme...
	Managing Australia's Coastal Resources	2005	E	00:29:59
	This program examines how beaches are formed, the range of habitats that are a part of the coast, impacts and threats and the levels of governance that shape our coast.
	Managing the Dorset Coast: Conflicts, Challenges and Opportunities	2012	E	00:48:19
	How can you balance the needs of the 25,000 visitors who descend on Studland Bay on a busy day, meet the requirements of Europe's largest oil field and protect the environment? This programme explores...
	Mapping Australia: Introducing Mapping Concepts	2004	E	00:26:02
	This programme is a comprehensive guide to mapping principles, using Australasian examples that show how maps are made and used. Origins of mapping concepts such as latitude, longitude, and scale are...
	Mapping Environmental Disasters: Bushfires and Threatened Species	2004	E	01:58:27
	When natural disasters like fire strike the Australian landscape, maps are used to help us to immediately deal with the problem, determine the impact on people and the environment, and plan for anothe...
	Minimum Impact: Take Only Photos, Leave Only Footprints	2005	E	00:23:56
	This program examines ways to minimise our impact when enjoying the outdoors.
	Mining - From Exploration to Rehabilitation	2011	E	00:19:34
	Starting with a brief historical overview of mining, this comprehensive program takes us out of the classroom, into the field, and down the mines. We visit Victoria's Stawell gold mine and meet expert...

	Montserrat: Living with Volcanoes A perfect case study of a volcano in an LEDC. The resource provides a clear explanation of the processes causing Montserrat's recent volcanic activity. It then assesses the social, economic and enviro...	2013	E	00:45:51
	More Freedom Stories Series: Freedom Stories WARNING: Chapter 6 of this film, 'Dreaming of Freedom', discusses psychological trauma and conveys thoughts of suicide and self-harm. Teachers are strongly advised to view the programme and use their...	2015	PG	01:40:47
	Mumbai Series: Megacities Mumbai, the world's most densely populated city, has been a thriving commercial hub for millennia. Its population has increased massively over the past 50 years, and although it has slowed, growth con...	2017	E	00:13:50
	Murray-Darling Basin: Profile of a Large River Drainage System An introduction containing statistics regarding river lengths, basin size, populations and human dependence on the Basin. Also discussed are geological time scales, geological formations, topographica...	1993	E	00:27:28
	National Parks: A Case Study - Minnamurra Rainforest John Dengate conducts a guided tour of the Minnamurra rainforest with a group of students. They examine unusual species and discuss a variety of environmental issues: - The role of parks in preserving...	1994	E	00:22:48
	National Parks: Kakadu National Parks conserve the natural beauty of a region: unique landscapes, flora and fauna for present and future generations. But what qualifies as a National Park? In this documentary style programm...	2013	E	00:07:29
	National Parks: The Lake District National Parks conserve the natural beauty of a region: unique landscapes, flora and fauna for present and future generations. But what qualifies as a National Park? In this documentary style programm...	2013	E	00:07:42
	National Parks: Yellowstone National Parks conserve the natural beauty of a region: unique landscapes, flora and fauna for present and future generations. But what qualifies as a National Park? In this documentary style programm...	2013	E	00:09:02
	Natural Disasters (Senior Version) Natural disasters are an inevitable part of the world we live in. This programme examines how we respond to overwhelming natural forces which place lives, property and resources in danger. Specificall...	1999	E	00:26:20
	Natural Hazards: Floods Floods can cause enormous devastation that has lasting social, psychological, economic and environmental impacts on a community. Flooding can also be a seasonal weather event that helps sustain life a...	2013	E	00:23:11
	People of Porgera: 1984 This is the original film we made of the Porgera people in Papua New Guinea before mineable gold was discovered. They show us their courting ceremony, a sing sing, marriage and bride price, wealth, de...	1997	E	00:48:21
	Population and World Resources What are the factors that determine the 'ecological footprint' of human beings? Using examples from around the globe, this programme looks at how the world's resources are consumed by populations at...	2003	E	00:30:57

	Population Geography	2009	E	00:27:52
	With a global population of 6 billion and counting, the planet is becoming overcrowded as our current population places strain on the planet's resources. The issue of where and how people live has cru...
	Population, Settlement and Change: A Study - Solomon Islands	1995	E	00:28:27
	This film examines population growth, urbanisation and Western influence in the Solomon Islands. It outlines factors leading to change including population growth, urbanisation and western influence....
	Pre-1850 Series: Australian Relationships with Nature	2010	E	00:23:51
	Throughout time, Australia's natural climatic extremes have presented many challenges for human inhabitants. This has prompted Australians to develop a unique relationship with the natural environment...
	Preparing for and Living with Natural Disasters	2006	E	00:28:49
	Australia's diverse landscape and climate has always been subject to many environmental hazards. This program demonstrates how property can be protected and lives saved with well-coordinated disaster...
	Rainforests	1987		00:20:52
	Presented by Richard Morecroft, this video is an excellent introduction to rainforests, providing information on their nature and structure and the role of light, water, soils, fauna, and vegetation i...
	Reclaiming Our Earth: Salinity Success Stories	2002	E	00:20:32
	This program provides two case studies of farms that have rehabilitated their salt-stricken land using a number of different methods and given hope to other communities around Australia.
	Recycling Processes: How is it Done, What Does it Save?	1991	E	00:22:10
	This program looks at why we should recycle and what happens to waste material once it has been sent for recycling. The recycling processes for paper, glass, aluminium, iron, concrete, oil and water a...
	Rise of the Eco-Warriors	2014	G	01:44:13
	A group of passionate and adventurous young people leave their known worlds behind to spend 100 days in the jungles of Borneo. Their mission: saving rainforests and endangered orangutans. But time is...
	River Health: Caring for Our Waterways	2005	E	00:36:00
	This beautifully-filmed program examines our impacts on rivers, river management and ways of assessing river health.
	River Landforms: From Source to Sea	1996	E	00:27:37
	Using examples from around the world, this film looks in detail at the landscapes and features along the courses of rivers, examining the processes that have shaped them over thousands of years. Topic...
	River Processes and Landforms Series: Dynamic Lands	2013	E	00:31:11
	Provide your students with memorable examples of potholes, rapids, waterfalls, gorges, meanders, braiding, flood plains and deltas, with our high quality video footage filmed both in the UK and abroad...
	Rotorua: A Case Study in Sustainable Tourism	2012	E	00:23:45
	Tourism is an important industry to many nations worldwide, and New Zealand is no exception. Rotorua on New Zealand's north island is the birthplace of tourism in that country, having hosted visitors...

	Rural Challenges: Case Studies from South India	2009	E	00:35:18
	Filmed in Southern India, this resource looks at the causes and impacts of rural poverty. It goes on to look at how this poverty can be alleviated, including providing better access to education and h...
	Rural Urban Migration: Push and Pull Factors	2001	E	00:19:54
	We look at the push factors that encourage people to move away from rural areas, and the pull factors that draw them to cities. Cities however, have their own push factors, and modern technology has en...
	Social Connectedness and Isolation Series: Place and Liveability	2014	E	00:07:54
	How does being socially connected or isolated affect the liveability of particular places? This clip showcases the experiences of three young Australians in very different geographical locations: the...
	Sustainable Agriculture: Managing Our Land for the Future	1997	E	00:24:20
	This program presents 4 case studies of sustainable agriculture: - Whole form planning: inputs, outputs, erosion control, soil management, tree planting, water management, and salinity control. - Land...
	Sustainable Forestry: Timber Production and Conservation	1995	E	00:29:33
	How can land and resource use be ecologically sustainable, especially in forestry? Solutions are offered by plantations that can be used to supplement timber taken from native forests. Forest conserva...
	Sustainable Management Series: Tropical Rainforests	2016	E	00:22:36
	Ecuador needs to exploit the Amazon's resources to develop. Leaving it untouched is not an option. This programme looks at the challenges of achieving sustainable management in the Amazon. It explores...
	Sustainable Settlement Issues	2010		00:23:52
	Large urban cities consume large amounts of resources and create vast amounts of waste that needs to be dealt with. For decades little or no concern was paid to this vital issue, but now there is a mu...
	Sustainable Urban Living: A South American Case Study	2003	E	00:25:11
	Curitiba is known worldwide for its innovative ideas in sustainable urban management. This case study looks at the city's initiatives and how these have benefited residents, examples being the integra...
	Tectonics: Processes and Landforms	2013	E	00:40:05
	Filmed in Montserrat, Haiti, Iceland, the Alps and the UK, this program provides examples and explanations of the processes, features and landforms that occur at different plate margins. The resource...
	The Alps: Opportunities and Challenges	2014	E	00:41:20
	Filmed in the honeypot site of Chamonix in the Alps, this programme looks at the social, economic and environmental opportunities and challenges facing the region. The resource explores the variety of...
	The Australian Farm Environment	2004	E	00:25:14
	Knowledge of the complex interactions contained in a farm environment, and their contribution to a successful business enterprise; is an important part of understanding the agricultural industry. This...
	The Christchurch Earthquake: A Case Study Series: Natural Hazards	2013	E	00:29:43
	The destructive and unexpected nature of earthquakes has remained a constant threat since civilisation began. Suitable for all secondary audiences, this two-part programme firstly examines the scienti...

	The End of Globalisation Series: Global Issues Series In this balanced programme we explore exactly what globalisation is - in theory and practice, we meet the people suffering and those benefiting from it and look into the future to see what lies ahead.	2009	E	00:26:59
	The Fabric Katrina, a teenager whose family have taken refuge in the country town of Shepparton from war torn Sudan, is seeking a way out and a desire for the big city. A chance meeting with local teenage boy Ch...	2014	E	00:15:00
	The Forgotten District Between the Caribbean Sea and the Maya Mountains lies Toledo, known as the Forgotten District of Belize, Central America. For the last 20 years, the Maya have been promoting their own ecotourism progr...	2009	E	00:51:45
	The Formation of Landforms Mountains, valleys, islands, hills ... What makes our planet have such diverse landforms? Has it always been as it is now? In this clip we will learn that the landforms of the earth's crust are due to...	2016	E	00:04:05
	The Great Barrier Reef: A Natural Wonder Series: Ecosystems Australia is home to one of the world's largest, most complex and amazing ecosystems – the Great Barrier Reef. This video explores the reef's biotic and abiotic features, including coral formation and...	2017	E	00:16:30
	The Great Barrier Reef: Coral, Carbon and Climate Change Series: Ecosystems The future of the Great Barrier Reef, one of the world's most significant marine environments, is under threat due to modern industry and agriculture. Featuring interviews with reef experts, including...	2017	E	00:14:43
	The Greening of Energy Although renewable energies are seen as "clean and green", their development can often be cause for conflict. Some forms of renewable energy are also limited by weather and climate. Examine the pros a...	2014	E	00:46:32
	The Haiti Earthquake: Impacts, Responses and Vulnerability Use this resource to exemplify the effects of a geo-hazard in an LEDC. The film first sets out Haiti's historical context to explain why the impacts were so devastating. Then, using footage filmed str...	2013	E	00:44:37
	The Impact of Tropical Cyclones Series: Weather Hazards Tropical cyclones devastate people, property and infrastructure. This programme outlines how cyclones are classified across the world, and then examines the impact of Hurricane Matthew on south-easter...	2017	E	00:12:58
	The Science of Pollution What is pollution? What causes pollution? Where is pollution found? Who will take charge of the big cleanup? This programme answers these questions while discussing how pollution impacts on the enviro...	2009	E	00:33:47
	The Sherpas of Nepal: Their Changing Environment and Community The Sherpas live around the Everest region in Nepal. They trade wool and salt from Tibet for hides, dried potatoes and other foods. This was cut off when the Chinese took over Tibet and the Sherpas had...	1998	E	00:21:57

	The Use of Irrigation in the Murray-Darling Basin	2009	E	00:29:17
	Is irrigation in the Murray-Darling basin sustainable? While irrigation produces 36% of the agricultural profits from Australia's 'food bowl', it does not come without a cost to the environment. Is s...
	The World's Water Crisis	2003	E	00:20:01
	This program looks at the world's dwindling fresh water supply. We examine how much fresh water there is on Earth, how much is locked in polar ice caps, and how much is available.
	Threats and Challenges Series: Tropical Rainforests	2016	E	00:25:15
	Follow a indigenous environmental campaigner as he introduces you to his rainforest world and explores the threats facing it. This title considers the value of rainforests, both locally and globally i...
	Tropical Cyclones Series: Weather Hazards	2017	E	00:08:32
	Tropical cyclones, also called hurricanes and typhoons, cause catastrophic damage when they strike land. When a cyclone's fury unleashes on population centres, death, injury and wholesale destruction...
	Tropical Storms: Bangladesh's Cyclone Aila	2010	E	00:33:08
	With extraordinary footage shot during and after Bangladesh's most recent cyclone, this program looks at the causes, impacts and management of tropical storms in an LEDC. It provides clear explanation...
	Urban Development	2006	E	00:31:43
	The program about urban development examines the geographical processes involved, perceptions and responses of various groups and the management and decision making required.
	Urban Dynamics: Suburbanisation and the Mechanism of Urban Sprawl	2005	E	00:16:42
	This programme offers a concise overview of today's city living. It explains the impact of city life on productivity and the economy as well as the concepts of 'time - travel budget constancy' and 'ur...
	Vietnam: Impact of Aid on a Developing Nation	1995	E	00:30:59
	Vietnam today is in transition, in an effort to double living standards the government has introduced a policy of reform known locally as Doi Moi. For many people living conditions have improved drama...
	Voices of Transition	2012	E	01:05:59
	"Voices of Transition" looks at different forms of agriculture and food production. The film takes as its starting point the adverse impacts of today's globalised agricultural industry and highlights...
	Waste Disposal: Think Globally, Act Locally	1991	E	00:24:30
	Where does your garbage go? A look at landfill operations, recycling, composting, toxic waste treatment and alternative productivity. This program also encourages the student to find ways to reduce th...
	Waste Not	2011	E	00:25:31
	"Waste Not" is a film about where your garbage goes, who sorts it for you, and what it is worth if it isn't just tossed into landfill. It's easier and cheaper to retrieve gold from old computers for i...
	Water around the World Series: Water Supply and Management	2017	E	00:14:39
	Clean water is essential for human existence. However, international requirements are not met by the available supply. This programme examines rising global water demand and some of the serious issues...

	Water in Australia: The Importance of Water in Our Lives (Years 3-7)	1985	E	00:21:31
	An overall look at water in all its facets. - Water in Space - vapour/liquid/ice only on Earth. - Water for Life - dissolves many chemicals. - Effect of water on the landscape - erosion, corrosion etc...
	Water in Australia: The Importance of Water in our Lives (Years 7-10)	1985	E	00:21:33
	An overall look at water in all its facets. - Water in Space - vapour/liquid/ice only on Earth. - Water for Life - dissolves many chemicals. - Effect of water on the landscape - erosion, corrosion etc...
	Water in the UK Series: Water Supply and Management	2017	E	00:15:03
	The UK's more densely populated and growing urban areas are, for the large part, located in regions of the country where rainfall is lower. Conversely, high rainfall occurs in regions where there is l...
	Water: A Precious Resource	2014	E	00:13:13
	Objective: To discuss about the importance of water and its availability, learn about groundwater, the water table and its depletion and methods to conserve water.Learning outcomes - students will be...
	Water: Australia as an International Case Study	2008	E	00:26:43
	From the tap in your own home to the mighty Amazon River - humans often use water without really thinking where it has come from or where it is going to. Such a precious resource is often taken for gr...
	Waves: Seismic Imaging and Tectonics	2015	E	00:28:39
	With exciting footage of earthquakes, engaging graphics and interviews with seismic survey teams, this programme provides a fantastic introduction to waves and how they are used. The different types o...
	Weather and Climate	2009	E	00:27:02
	It affects everything we do, from our day to day plans of what clothes to wear to affecting the way we feel. Weather is a giant continuum of change and is crucial to the planet's survival. But how is...
	Weather Forecasting	2000	E	00:19:08
	The weather affects everyone and everything on the planet so being able to predict what it will be like has numerous advantages. With the invention of the telegraph in the 1830s it became possible for...
	Wetlands Series: Bill Nye the Science Guy	1996	E	00:24:49
	Bill Nye sloshes across American wetlands and gets a little bit muddy while he shows us how these swamps, bogs, and marshes help control floods, naturally filter water, and provide a good home to lots...
	Wetlands	1998	E	00:20:17
	The nature of wetlands are defined and we look at the location of wetlands throughout the world. In addition, the video examines in detail a wetland area located next door to the site of the Sydney 20...
	What Causes Volcanoes? (Junior Version)	1985	E	00:22:24
	This film is a compilation of the best volcanic footage from around the world with clear explanations of what causes the different volcanic types. Mid ocean ridges, volcanoes over trenches, plate tec...
	What Causes Volcanoes? (Senior Version)	1985	E	00:21:28
	A compilation of the best volcanic footage from around the world with clear explanations of what causes the different volcanic types. Mid ocean ridges, volcanoes over trenches, plate tectonics, shiel...

World Population Issues: How Many Is Too Many?

1998 E 00:26:49

The program provides a historical background to population growth and presents different perspectives on how many people the earth's resources can support. Through sample studies, the issues surroundi...

Youthful Populations: An African Case Study

2005 E 00:31:18

The Gambia has one of the most youthful populations in the world. This resource explores the issues and implications that arise as a result. It includes the role of contraception and family planning,...