

Psychology

75 videos

1 - Why Study Psychology & Research Methods & The Nervous System Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'Why Study Psychology?' introduces psychology as a science of behaviour and mental processes. It explains how understanding why we think and	Year 2001	Rating E	Duration 01:22:41
act as we do enhances our lives. The seco 2 - The Neuron and Neural Transmission & Sensation and Perception & Consciousness Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'The Neuron and Neural Transmission' illustrates how the brain communicates with the body by explaining what the neuron is, how it functions, and	2001	E	01:22:41
what happens to that communication w 3 - Classical and Operant Conditioning & Learning: Observational and Cognitive Approaches & Memory Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'Classical and Operant Conditioning' discusses Pavlov's classical conditioning experiment and how it demonstrates the process of learning by an association or relationship. The secon	2001	E	01:22:43
4 - Language and Cognition & Intelligence & Motivation Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'Language and Cognition' explores the fact that most animals have the ability to communicate, but only humans have language, symbols for objects, actions, ideas, and feelings. The se	2001	Е	01:22:42
5 - Emotions & Infant and Child Development & Adolescent and Adult Development Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'Emotions' asks the following questions: What are emotions? Are they learned or are they innate? Are they expressed in the same way throughout most cultures? The second episode 'Infa	2001	Е	01:22:43
6 - Gender and Sexuality & Personality Theories & Personality Traits and Assessment Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'Gender and Sexuality' explores the distinction between the terms sex and gender and describes the similarities and differences between men and women. The second episode 'Personality	2001	Е	01:22:40
7 - Social Cognition & Attitudes & Group Influence Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'Social Cognition' focuses on how people form impressions of others and how people's behaviour is affected by attitudes. The second episode 'Attitudes' analyses the formation of atti	2001	Е	01:22:39
8 - Stress, Health and Coping & Understanding Psychological Disorders Part 1 & 2 Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'Stress, Health and Coping' chronicles a breast cancer survivor who employs successful coping strategies to aid in maintaining good health in stressful situations. The second episode	2001	Е	01:22:40
9 - Therapies & Personality Traits and Assessment & Making Psychology Part of Your Life Series: Psychology: The Human Experience The first episode 'Therapies' examines four different styles of therapy treatment for mental disorders and discusses the role of each style of therapy. The second episode 'Personality Traits and Asses	2001	G	01:22:39

	After Milgram: Obedience and Identity WARNING: The content of this programme may be hurtful or offensive to some viewers. Teachers are advised to view the programme and use their discretion to determine the suitability of the programme fo	2016	M	00:19:58
NEXT DOOR	Aggression Are all people capable of murder? What drives people to violence? Can TV affect our actions and even influence us to acts of violence? How do psychologists account for the brutal murder of James Bulge	2013	Е	00:22:56
	Anxiety Disorders Humans, like many animals, possess a highly developed sense of danger in our environment. In its most basic form, our awareness of these threats is anxiety. Our 'fight or flight' response can be highl	2011	Е	00:21:49
	Are You What Your Mother Ate? The Agouti Mouse Study Jirtle and Waterland's Agouti Mouse Study has been called one of the most important pieces of research in the 21st century and this film explores both it's substance and significance for the Nature-Nu	2017	Е	00:14:13
	Attachment This programme is excellent for a wide range of training purposes for foster carers, parents groups, child minders, social work and for those people who work with children. It is also an excellent res	2013	E	00:26:23
STANTED	Bandura's Social Cognitive Theory Series: Giants of Psychology Treading new ground in the field of social psychology, Albert Bandura's work has become basic to an understanding of how social forces influence individuals, small groups and large groups. Utilising	2003	E	00:37:03
the same of	Baron Cohen on Autism Series: Core Studies in Psychology Simon Baron Cohen discusses his case study Another Advanced Test of Theory of Mind. Cohen explains the aims and origins of his study, illustrates his Eyes Test' methodology, explaining why the eyes we	2010	Е	00:22:59
	Beyond Genetics "Nature or Nurture?" is a long-running debate in psychology, one heavily-influenced by developments in genetics and a rise in the popular belief that "dna is destiny": the idea human behaviour is broa	2016	Е	00:23:03
	Bystander Intervention This compelling programme, filmed on location in Liverpool, uses the James Bulger case to illustrate some key approaches to bystander behaviour. The programme is clearly divided into three sections: D	2009	Е	00:27:51
	Case Study Research Illustrated by the case of Susan "Genie" Wiley and a range of other classic and contemporary studies, this video takes you through the essential ideas and skills needed to successfully answer exam que	2015	E	00:05:39
	Classic Studies in Psychology One Series: Psychology Short Cuts A compelling set of short programmes illustrating five of psychology's most important studies; The Strange Situation, Bandura on Social Learning, Elizabeth Loftus on Eyewitness Testimony, Milgram's Ex	2007		00:39:07
	Correlation and Causation: Illustrating the Difference Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 2 A simple exercise demonstrates why correlation does not show cause. The title also examines confounding variables and why they must be taken into account when examining correlation.	2013	Е	00:03:26

	Correlations This short video identifies and explains the key ideas and areas that are examined regarding correlation. These are positive and negative correlations, correlation coefficients, correlation and causa	2016	Е	00:04:19
	Day Care Series: Psychology Critical Issues There has been an explosion of day care in the last three decades. But what are the effects on children's long term development? Starting from a child care centre, this programme explores these questi	2001	Е	00:27:32
	Eating Disorders Series: Psychology Critical Issues This programme examines what eating disorders are, their symptoms, myths and the most effective treatments. This programme examines what eating disorders are, their symptoms, myths and most effective	2001	Е	00:29:11
	Elizabeth Loftus: Eyewitness Testimony Professor Elizabeth Loftus takes us through her ground-breaking research on eyewitness evidence, focusing particularly on her seminal study with John Palmer - "Reconstruction of Automobile Destruction	2011	E	00:17:51
	Erik Erikson: A Life's Work Series: Giants of Psychology This film introduces students to the wisdom of Erik H. Erikson. Best known for his identification of the eight stages of the life cycle, Erikson spent a lifetime observing and studying the way in whic	1991	E	00:37:31
aims of research ethical guidelines	Ethical Issues in Psychology Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 1 Psychologists don't just owe a duty of care to the participants of their research, they also have a duty to produce creative and socially useful research, and sometimes these obligations come into con	2014	E	00:04:33
 	Ethics This video looks at the nature and significance of ethical guidelines to the research process, using examples drawn from the work of Milgram, Watson, and Sharif. The video looks at what ethics are, an	2015	Е	00:05:51
E	Ethnocentrism This short film highlights a range of ideas and skills required for a good understanding of ethnocentrism. The film defines ethnocentrism and it's social construction, and how it appears in to researc	2015	E	00:06:14
	Experimental Design This programme uses a real world example (the relationship between learning and time of day) to explore thee different types of experimental design: repeated measures, independent measures, and matche	2016	E	00:06:39
S	Experimental Methods: A Case Study Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 2 This title teaches students about the experimental methods that psychologists use to gain evidence. Through an examination of Loftus and Palmer's experiments on witness testimony, students will gain a	2013	E	00:05:20
	Experimental Research Methods in Psychology Series: Understanding Psychology We see a laboratory experiment on attraction in progress. Psychologists explain they are interested in whether the context in which we see someone influences our view of their attractiveness. Two grou	2004	Е	00:22:05

	Experimental Research Methods in Psychology One of the main ways psychologists operationalise behavioural questions is through experimental methods and this film explores and evaluates three dimensions of this process: laboratory, field and nat	2016	Е	00:19:01
	Eyewitness Testimony Series: Psychology Critical Issues We begin with a brief case study of a prisoner convicted on eyewitness testimony alone. This leads in to an exploration of the reliability of eyewitness testimony and what this can tell us about the n	2001	Е	00:28:02
	Face Recognition The way we make assessments about many people every day is by looking at their face. Faces tell us basic information such as gender, approximate age and possible ethnicity. But we also learn to read f	2013	E	00:24:17
	False Memory WARNING: This programme contains graphic images. Teachers are advised to view the programme and use their discretion to determine the suitability of the programme for their students. Elizabeth Loftus'	2013	M	00:22:55
Received Patricipal	Free Will and Determinism Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 1 Do we have choices in life or is our behaviour determined? Recent advances in neuroscience have thrown new light on this long running issue. Here we look at, and reconstruct, Libet's seminal experime	2014	Е	00:06:50
This is sufficient. The support of t	Getting Behind Psychological Statistics This three-part film looks at how statistical data is collected, compared and explained through an examination of three key areas in this process - sampling, correlation and causation - presented as s	2016	Е	00:19:23
	Griffiths: Cognitive Bias and Gambling Series: Core Studies in Psychology Mark Griffiths talks about his case study The Role of Cognitive Bias and Skill in Fruit Machine Gambling, discussing the origins, aims and methodology of his study, as well as his findings and the imp	2010	E	00:16:28
000	Introducing Psychology Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 1 A start! Gives students a flavour of biological, developmental and cognitive Psychology. Great for first week of term or Open Days.	2014	Е	00:06:34
	Jim Fallon: Natural Born Killer? WARNING: This programme contains graphic images. Teachers are advised to view the programme and use their discretion to determine the suitability of the programme for their students. Neuroscientist Jim	2015	M	00:18:11
	John Bowlby: Attachment Theories Series: Giants of Psychology The film is a companion piece to the 'Giants of Psychology' film on Bowlby's colleague, Mary Ainsworth, which is centred largely on the development of attachment relationships in infancy. This film ad	2007	E	00:39:17
	Looking at Reductionism: A Case Study Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 2 When facing complex issues, psychologists often break them down into their component parts, and then identify a key cause. This approach is called reductionism, and this title explores the advantages	2013	Е	00:06:10

	Maguire: Navigation and the Human Brain Eleanor Maguire discusses her seminal study Navigation-Related Structural Changes in the Hippocampus of Taxi Drivers, looking at its context and aims, groundbreaking methods, surprising findings and w	2010	Е	00:14:47
	Managing and Coping with Stress Series: Psychology Concepts Psychologists have studied the cognitive and emotional strategies we use to cope with stress for decades. This programme explores the benefits and costs of two widely recognised strategies: avoidance	2016	Е	00:10:42
	Mental Disorders Series: Understanding Psychology It's quite normal to feel worried or sad, but sometimes these feelings can take over us and the normal can become abnormal. We begin by introducing two case studies, Alison who has depression and Kare	2003	E	00:29:10
Herald TEXTS SEPLACE	Non-Experimental Methods in Psychology Series: Understanding Psychology Most of us have mobiles and in Australia alone we send millions of texts a month. But little is yet known about the psychological effects of the mobile phone. Is it changing the way we relate to each	2003	E	00:32:55
	Obedience and Ethics Series: Psychology Critical Issues Conformity is essential to social life. But behind the familiar order of everyday life lurk some uncomfortable truths. Psychological experiments have shown that our desire to conform can lead us into	2001	Е	00:29:18
	Observational Methods Using examples from a range of classic studies, this clip takes students through the naturalistic forms of observation. It looks at different types of of observation, applications of naturalistic obse	2017	Е	00:04:02
	Offender Profiling Offender profiling is commonly used in solving crimes. Using the leading case of the railway murders in the UK, this programme explains what profiling is, and what it aims to do. The origins of profil	2012	PG	00:24:57
	Perspectives on Psychology Series: Understanding Psychology We begin by looking at what psychology is, how it differs from common sense and the questions it asks about human behaviour. We then explore some of the areas where psychologists have looked for answe	2001	E	00:40:38
	Piaget's Developmental Theory: An Overview Series: Giants of Psychology Dr. David Elkind explores the roots of Piaget's work and outlines important vocabulary and concepts that structure much of the study of child development. Using both archival film of Dr. Piaget and ne	1989	E	00:27:05
PROPERTY.	Reliability and Validity Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 2 The concepts of reliability and validity are demonstrated by a simple exercise. Students learn about the importance of consistency and interpreting data in a relevant manner, when conducting experimen	2013	E	00:03:51
	Reliability and Validity This video outlines some key aspects of the important methodological concepts of reliability and validity through a range of real-world examples. It looks at internal and external reliability, standa	2015	Е	00:04:20

	Research in Context This programme, consisting of five short videos, helps with the difficult task of	2009	Е	00:29:00
	integrating science and research. We see the cycle of science illustrated with Naughty Teddy's challenge to Piaget's t Rethinking Obesity: Nurture via Nature? As a species, we have been getting larger and in some Western societies obesity is now at epidemic levels. So why are we doing so much damage to ourselves, our health services and our planet? Is it ma	2017	E	00:15:59
	Rosenhan's Experiment: Being Sane in Insane Places This five-part film examines one of the most infamous psychological experiments of all time, an experiment from which psychiatry has never quiet recovered. It looks at the context of the study in the	2011	PG	00:19:11
	Sampling This video uses some classic psychological studies (Loftus, Maguire, Baron-Cohen, and Zimbardo) to illustrate a range of sampling issues. It looks at definitions, representativeness and generalisabili	2015	Е	00:05:49
	Science and Psychology Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 2 Is psychology a science? Students will learn what science is and the ways in which psychology is both like and unlike a science. Two case studies are given to explore the different ways to approach ps	2013	Е	00:05:36
	Self Report Methods This short video uses a real-world example—collecting data about education—to illustrate and explain how and why psychologists use self-report methods. The video looks at questionnaire design, the use	2015	Е	00:05:18
STANFORD COUNTY PRISON	Situational Theory Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 1 While most psychologists look to explain behaviour in terms of factors within individuals, others focus more on situations, and one of these is Philip Zimbardo. Here Zimbardo uses extracts from his in	2014	Е	00:05:48
	Sleep – it's something we do every day, but why do we sleep and why are psychologists so interested in sleep? What happens if we don't sleep? Sleep has been the subject of extensive research over many	2013	Е	00:25:46
	Stress as a Biological Process Series: Psychology Concepts We all feel stress: a response to demands that exceed our ability to cope. It's not only psychological – biology plays a major role in the stress response. This programme details the immediate physiol	2016	Е	00:10:41
	Stress as a Psychological Process Series: Psychology Concepts This programme begins by defining stress and its causes. Types of stressors like daily life hassles and major life events, and the psychological responses of eustress and distress are explored. The se	2016	Е	00:10:07
Economy is losing billions as stress takes toli on starr	Stress Management Series: Psychology Critical Issues Stress has been called the most prevalent disease of modern society: a new epidemic brought about by the pace of modern life and the pressure to succeed in a climate of increasing job insecurity. Stre	2001	Е	00:27:47

	The BBC Prison Study Series: Understanding Psychology	2008	PG	00:28:02
	In this accessible and engrossing programme, Alex Haslam and Steve Reicher tell the story of the largest field study in social psychology for over 30 years, using original illustrative film from the B
4	The Social Toddler	2005	Е	00:31:06
	Understand toddlers and why they do the things they do.Imagine trying to ask, but without language; to reason, but with no boundaries; or to explore with no concept of fear. Featuring renowned experts
A 6	The Stroop Effect Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 2	2013	Е	00:03:28
	Students replicate a repeated measure design experiment, called the Stroop Effect, to learn about how it helps control variables, such as individual difference.
	The Use of Non-Human Animals in Research Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 2	2013	Е	00:06:29
	Animals have contributed to a lot of scientific advancements, but how ethical is it to use them in research? This title discusses the legality and ethical issues concerning the use of animals in resea
	Understanding Postnatal Depression	2012	Е	00:22:00
	Postnatal depression (PND), also known as postpartum depression (PPD), is a condition that affects mothers and sometimes fathers soon after the birth of a child. PND is clinical depression and must be
	Understanding Prejudice	2008	Е	00:29:18
	This programme explores some of the reasons society chooses to 'accept' people and some of the reasons why people are 'not accepted', or prejudiced against. The programme includes a brief historical I
	Understanding Socially Sensitive Research	2016	Е	00:04:50
	This video develops the concept of socially-senstive research in terms of three key ideas: should the research be done, how findings can be used, and how findings should be communicated.
	Usefulness of Research	2015	Е	00:05:32
	Explaining how and why psychological research is "useful" is a question many students struggle to demonstrate in a coherent way. This short film, based around a range of classic and contemporary studi
88 00	Variables	2016	Е	00:05:25
	Although the idea of variables can seem dull and uninspiring, they're important because they're everywhere in psychology. This video defines the concept of variables, identify and describe different t
	What Are Ethics? Series: The Concepts of Psychology: Part 1	2014	Е	00:06:08

Here we introduce students to the idea of ethics, the ethical regulation of psychology and how it works in practice.