

Students issues with editing shared documents

Some students experience difficulties editing files (PowerPoint) that the teacher has linked to Teams. For a student to edit document –they need to choose edit and not just view when they access the file. Students need to adjust this on their document. It is in the bar at the top.

