

Legal Studies

22 videos

	Year	Rating	Duration
 Case Study 01 Series: Expert Evidence This case study examines the error of acting outside one's area of expertise. The expert is being asked to explain the process of ouchterlony, an immunological technique used to detect the presence of...	2017	E	00:01:11
 Case Study 02 Series: Expert Evidence This case study demonstrates the importance of preparation for presentation in court. The scenario demonstrates where an expert witness, Dr Jodie Witkowski, has failed to organise her notes. Her lack...	2017	E	00:01:23
 Case Study 03 Series: Expert Evidence This case study is a comparison between well-presented and poorly presented evidence. In this scenario, the expert is being asked about his investigation of a boat's sinking rate. As part of the exami...	2017	E	00:02:40
 Case Study 04 Series: Expert Evidence This case study likewise involves the contrast between well-presented and poorly presented evidence. In this scenario, the expert is being asked to explain the likelihood of DNA being accidentally tra...	2017	E	00:04:45
 Case Study 05 Series: Expert Evidence A comparison between a question asked in an unclear manner by the lawyer, and a clearly asked question. In this scenario, the lawyer is attempting to undermine the expert witness's credibility. The ex...	2017	E	00:01:22
 Case Study 06 Series: Expert Evidence A comparison between a question asked in an unclear manner by the lawyer, and a clearly asked question. In this scenario, the lawyer is attempting to undermine the expert witness's credibility. The ex...	2017	E	00:02:51
 Case Study 07 Series: Expert Evidence In the first example, the expert, forensic scientist Dr Fred Anderson, makes the statement, with a questioning intonation in his voice. The second example, the same words, but delivered with aplomb. T...	2017	E	00:01:02
 Case Study 08 Series: Expert Evidence In the first example, the expert, Dr Jodie Witkowski, makes the statement that suggests uncertainty about her material. No eye contact to the judge. The second example, the expert clearly and carefull...	2017	E	00:01:55
 Case Study 09 Series: Expert Evidence In the first example, the expert, Joe Bednall, appears to be mostly reading his evidence and doesn't give the impression he's across his material. The second example, the expert reads his statement, b...	2017	E	00:01:48
 Case Study 10 Series: Expert Evidence In this first example, the expert, Dr Jodie Witkowski is flustered, causing the barrister to prompt her. The second example, the expert crisply delivers her statement with assurance, with occasional g...	2017	E	00:01:49

	Episode 01: Role of the Expert Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:04:16
	This video defines and discusses the expert witness' role and responsibilities.
	Episode 02: Ethics and Standards Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:04:29
	Various legal and forensic specialists examine the behaviours and accountability that must be demonstrated by expert witnesses.
	Episode 03: Credentials and Technology Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:08:46
	Professor Barbara Etter (Edith Cowan University), police forensic investigator Karl Kent, and Sam Norton of Robert Stary Lawyers discuss the challenges posed by evolving technologies when developing a...
	Episode 04: Credibility and Experience Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:06:00
	Former Supreme Court judge The Hon Frank Vincent AO QC, Professor David Denton of Victoria University and others present their perspective on the importance of expert witnesses' credibility and experi...
	Episode 05: Expert Witness Preparation Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:05:24
	This video discusses the do's and don't of preparation for court testimony and cross-examination.
	Episode 06: Pre-appearance Discussions Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:04:07
	Sam Norton (Robert Stary Lawyers) and Karl Kent (Victoria Police Forensic Services Department) discuss with Professor Barbara Etter (Edith Cowan University) the importance of pre-appearance discussion...
	Episode 07: Effective Written Reports Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:06:57
	Stephen Cordner (Forensic Medicine, Monash University) and David Wells (Forensic Medicine, Victoria Institute of Forensic Medicine) outline essential aspects of preparing effective written reports.
	Episode 08: Presenting Reports and Opinions Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:07:24
	This video canvasses the elements that must comprise effective presentation of reports and opinions for court.
	Episode 09: Presentation Skills Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:07:06
	Legal and forensic experts present invaluable advice about the importance of good presentation in court and arbitral contexts.
	Episode 10: Mistakes and Challenges Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:04:55
	Anyone can make mistakes when presenting expert evidence in an adversarial legal context: this video canvasses ways to avoid them, and how to meet the many challenges positively.
	Episode 11: Miscarriages of Justice Series: Expert Evidence	2017	E	00:12:00
	Miscarriages of justice occur for sometimes the most slender, even avoidable reasons. This video presents some of the better-known Australian miscarriages of justice.

Episode 12: Top Tips
Series: Expert Evidence

2017

E

00:07:08

In the final video of this series, legal and forensic experts share excellent and easy-to-remember tips for expert witnesses seeking to improve performance in the courtroom.